

Darin Chidsey

Chief Operating Officer

Southern California Association of Governments

Darin Chidsey is the Chief Operating Officer for the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), the nation's largest metropolitan planning organization representing six counties, 191 cities and nearly 19 million residents. Chidsey has been at SCAG for more than 12 years, and previously served as the Chief Operating Officer and the Director of Strategy, Policy and Public Affairs. As Executive Director, Darin is responsible for driving the vision and strategies of the agency, as well as leading the implementation of new regional initiatives.

Chidsey holds a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Southern California's Marshall School of Business and a Bachelor of Science in Environmental and Energy Policy from the University of California, Berkeley. He is an alumnus of the Harvard Kennedy School of Government's Senior Executive in State and Local Government program and was a fellow in the Southern California Leadership Network's California Connections and Leadership Southern California programs.
