

Martin H. Hodgett

Office Managing Director – Southern California Accenture

Marty is the Office Managing Director of Southern California and leads the SoCal Health & Public Service practice. Marty has extensive experience in driving and implementing change in multiple types of business environments and a track record of transforming IT organizations from independent, technology-focused groups to integrated organizations that drive business value.

Marty's initial 20 years with Accenture were spent working with some of the largest global retailers in the world. He then went on to be a CIO with Orchard Supply Hardware, Symantec and Cord Blood Registry. In addition, Marty was CEO of RivalWatch, a retail pricing analytics SaaS platform, which was successfully sold in 2012.

Marty returned to Accenture in 2016 to be the Go-to-Market Lead for the mobility and industrial practice that includes clients within the auto, transit, travel industry and industrial segments in the West. He then transitioned into the lead for the Public Sector for SoCal. The SoCal Public Service practice works with the city, county, state and related agencies in the SoCal region, where Accenture brings a wealth of expertise to help resolve the biggest challenges facing these organizations.

Marty is an advisor to multiple Silicon Valley start-ups and an active volunteer. He is currently the Chair of the Board of the Catalight Foundation and a Director of Easterseals of Hawaii, where the focus is helping every person reach their fullest potential.

Marty holds a B.S. in Finance from California State University Fresno and an MBA from Notre Dame de Namur University.
